IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.16476 of 2008
RAM PRAVESH MANJHI & ANR
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR
---

2 05.05.2008 This is an application for the grant of regular bail in a case of murder against two persons who are the petitioners.

Mohan Manjhi lodged F.I.R. alleging therein that the petitioners Ram Pravesh Manjhi and Sailendra Manjhi brutally assaulted Surendra Manjhi with lathi causing his death.

Learned lawyer for the petitioner submits that Kameshwar Manjhi brother of the deceased is an acting member of People War Group and there was rivalry between the People War Group and MALE Group and for that reason Surendra Manjhi was done to death by the other villagers. He submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that four witnesses have been examined and they all did not support the case and have been declalred hostile. He has filed the deposition of those witnesses who had been examined. He, therefore, prays for bail.

WEB COPY NOT OFFICIAL

Learned State counsel submits that there is specific allegation the petitioners for causing the murder of the deceased.

In consideration of the allegation together with the submissions made the prayer for bail is rejected. The trial court is directed to expedite the trial.

Mkr. (Anwar Ahmad,J)

WEB COPY
NOT OFFICIAL